A Man Who Can "Wag His Left Ear."

About a dozen of well-known members of the Rhode Island medical society, met Friday at the office of Dr. H. Hutchinson & Browning, on Matheson street to witness a private exhibition of a remarkable nature by Chas. H. Warren, of New York. This man met with an accident in his youth that caused a dislocation of the hip, and what was quite remarkable succeeded himself in reducing the dislocation. This power, it seems, led him to tests of muscular strength and exertion that finally developed him into a man of extraordinary power, which gives him perfect control of all the muscles of the body, individually and sectionally. But a few days ago he appeared before Dr. Bigelow of Harvard college and astonished the doctor by a wonderful display of muscular movements. The exhibition Friday was of a similar nature, and produced no less surprise among the medical savants who assembled to see him. He dislocated almost any part of the body at will, and then resumed his natural condition in the perfect embodiment of physical development. He first showed a dislocation of the hip joint of two and a half inches, and just as quickly brought it back to its normal condition. Displacements of the wrist and the shoulders, by which he succeeded in lengthening his arms an inch or more, were next shown, following them with a dislocation of the jaw in a downward and forward movement. The difference in the expansion of the chest from its natural state was seven inches. He showed a dislocation of the knee joint, and twisted his limbs about in almost every conceivable condition, actually bringing both feet together, bottom to bottom. But perhaps the most singular performance of all was that done with his auricular appendage. The expression, "Can you wag your left ear?" has often been heard, though hardly ever realized, but here was a man who gave an actual illustration of it in its literal meaning. The doctors were amused as well as astonished. Altogether it was a most remarkable exhibition, given perfectly free from all deception, before men of acknowledged medical learning who found their subject one of interesting study. Mr. Warren is in excellent health, and is a man, as might naturally be inferred, of remarkable physical power and endurance.

Wanton Destruction of Fish.

[Silver State.]

We are informed that fish are being wantonly destroyed at Summit lake near Old Camp McGarry. The lake is well stocked with trout, which in the spring run up the streams which empty into it to spawn. Persons from all parts of the country gather there at this season of the year, and by diverting the streams from their natural channels, get whole wagon loads of fish, and leave thousands of them to perish in the dry beds of the creeks. The fish are of the salmon trout species, similar to those in the Truckee, and grow to a large size. Thousands of them perish annually in consequence of the diversion of the waters in which they spawn, and ranchers in the vicinity think the authorities ought to endeavor to prevent this wholesale slaughter of them before they are all killed off. Every season people from Surprise valley visit the lake on fishing excursions and catch barrels of fish, which they salt and dry, and leave thousands of them to perish in the beds of the streams from which they divert the water.

Virginia School Statistics.

C. B. McDuffie, school census marshal for Virginia school district, has returned the following report of children in his district: No. of blind children between 4 and 18 years of age, 1; No. of deaf and dumb children between 4 and 18 years of age, 2; No. of children between 6 and 18 years of age not attending school, 334; Total number of children reported as attending private schools, 435; Total number of children reported as attending public schools, 1570; No. of children between 4 and 6 years of age attending public schools, 50; No. of children between 6 and 8 years of age, 229; No. of children under 21 born in Nevada, 1070; No. of children between 16 and 21 years of age, 82; No. of children under 6 years of age, 1598; No. of children between 6 and 18 years of age, 2990; No. of girls between 6 and 18 years of age, 1818; No. of boys between 6 and 18 years of age, 1172.

Native Fruits.

[Virginia Enterprise.]

From Dr. Hazlett's garden, in Dayton, there was sent to this office yesterday a box of specimens of Nevada's production, which prove that all the fruits of the temperate zone will thrive luxuriantly in Nevada if attended to. The box contained ripe strawberries and currants of a flavor which does not come with these things across the mountains; and there were inclosed stems of half ripe gooseberries, cherries and peaches the sight of which leads to the belief that we shall have business as Dayton when our crops from now. We advise the doctor to add to his fruit on the upper side and to purchase several ballnets. A peach for girls and boys is one that ought to be encouraged, if such ones are raised in Nevada.

The Carson Races.

The Pacific Life says: Wesley George, leader of the Carson race-track, is getting up some interesting and attractive races for the 3d, 4th, and 5th of July, and we hope to see a good attendance of his Virginia City and Reno friends, as well as a liberal patronage from his fellow-townsmen. Mr. George recently returned from a visit to California, and has succeeded in inducing a number of owners to enter their horses in the events on his speed programme. W. L. Pritchard will probably enter Evangeline and Richard III, and Dick Allen may send up Nathan Coombs and a Long-fellow filly. Of the local horses, Winslow will enter Illusion; Matt. Allen, Madge Duke; and McBride, of Genoa, Red Oak. It is also expected that Mollie H., from Meadow Lake Valley, will put in an appearance.

The Girls That Are Left Behind.

By the Independent.

To be slangy, impertinent and "fly" seems to be the ambition of a large class of young girls on the Comstock and elsewhere. By the aid of this kind of smartness they may and do shine in the society of young men and to a considerable extent achieve considerable popularity. But notwithstanding their many attractions and sociable qualifications, they are seldom asked in marriage by sensible young men. A man may admire and even applaud many things in a lady friend's character and conduct which he would not at all like to see in his wife.

The Grand Canon of the Arkansas is nine miles in length, being the winding way of that river through granite, the walls rising in many places to the height of 2500 feet. This rock-bound river pathway was discovered by the Spanish missionaries as early as 1643. From that time it is not known that any animals have passed through it until the summer of 1870. Last week a train of cars on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad made the passage. Along the palisade that forms the northern boundary of the gorge, and about ten feet above the boiling waters, the engineer has carved a roadbed.

Dr. Minnie's Nephreticum.

DR. MINNIE'S NEPHRETICUM works wonders. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, these troubles are entirely cured by the Nephreticum. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back and loin are cured when all other medicines have failed.

See what the Druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Minnie's Nephreticum and English Dandelion Pills: "We have sold a large amount of Dr. Minnie's medicine; the English Dandelion Pills; also the Nephreticum, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland. C. H. Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale, Druggists, Nos. 5 and 6 Front street, San Francisco, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy before the public. All Druggists keep these medicines. For all derangements of the Liver, Use Dr. Minnie's English Dandelion Pills. For Biliousness and Dyspepsia, Use Dr. Minnie's English Dandelion Pills. For Fever and Ague, Use Dr. Minnie's English Dandelion Pills. Every family should keep the English Dandelion Pills on hand."

Dr. Minnie's Remedy will not "Cure all Complaints," but will, if taken according to directions, give immediate relief and perfect a cure in all troubles for which they are recommended. Osborn & Shoemaker, Agents.

No War! No Sacrifice!

But always the sledge hammer on high prices. From the very day I opened I sold the very goods which are advertised at panic prices, for 25 per cent. less than are now offered by the noble warriors; farther more I do not offer a few articles as a bait, but I sell all my goods for less than ever heard of this side of the Rocky mountains. All who have traded with me can testify to the truth of the above, and those who have never yet traded with me most cordially invite to be convinced.

SOME NOTES ON CULTURE.

A metropolitan journal like the GAZETTE is obliged to pay attention to politics and the news. The GAZETTE circulates because it is a good newspaper. Its business is to chronicle small beer and discuss political topics. People will have what is called "the news." But if the GAZETTE were not a business enterprise, if published and distributed solely from benevolent considerations, its contents would be different. We would not attend to what the wild demagogues were saying, would not care whether this or that politician got into office, would leave politics and business to go their own ways.

We would try to draw men away from unprofitable and vexatious political and the unending pursuit of the mighty dollar. For what is life to the majority of mankind but a long, feverish struggle for ends that are either never reached or that are at last attained only to be despised. What good is all this money grabbing? Why should men for the sake of gain shut themselves up from day to day and year to year in the narrow prisons of traffic, while the half naked Indian roams free and unfettered over the mountains, and living in harmony with nature, gets far more enjoyment out of life.

The Carson Appeal had recently a thoughtful article on culture. The Appeal makes a plea for aesthetic cultivation in Nevada. We do not entirely agree with the conclusions of that article, but it was an effort in the right direction. Culture is a very comprehensive word. The kind of culture that we would encourage would be that which the better fits men for the actual work of life and at the same time enables them the more to enjoy it. Children are now taught many branches of knowledge at school. Their memories are very often loaded with a great deal of rubbish that they often find it hard to forget. But they are seldom taught to use their eyes. The faculty of observation is the one that most needs cultivation and is the one most commonly neglected. Memory is made to take the place of it. Agassiz's method of teaching the physiology of the oyster was to give each student an oyster to examine and describe. That system of instruction which calls for the exercise of observation is true education. What our youth most need is the cultivation of this faculty of observation. To see for themselves, to investigate, to draw their conclusions direct from evidence, are the characteristics of the men who add to the world's knowledge. And the man with trained powers of observation is never at a loss for recreation. Put him in a wilderness and he will find recreation and instruction in watching an ant-hill. Every strange plant is to him a matter of interest; he finds sermons in stones, and instruction in a weed. To learn to look to nature for enjoyment is what the young people of this country most need.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A paragraph from the Silver State reprinted in the GAZETTE to-day, reports the wholesale slaughter of trout by some barbarians living near Summit lake. They divert the water from the streams and leave thousands of trout to die and rot in the empty river beds. The people who are guilty of such disgraceful proceedings, should be punished to the full extent of the law. Their offence is a crime against society and posterity. The punishment should be severe.

The brute Bowler, who shot his wife in San Francisco yesterday, seems to have regarded her as a kind of property, like his horse. After his arrest he said to a policeman: "She was my wife and I had a right to shoot her. I had ought to have shot her long ago."

The war between Chili and Peru is attracting general attention. News from the South American coast brings particulars of a naval engagement fought near Iquique last month, in which a Chilean wooden war vessel was sunk and a Peruvian iron-clad was burned.

Frank Pixley was yesterday elected temporary chairman of the Republican State Convention at Sacramento, and Marcus D. Boruck temporary secretary.

Our telegraphic dispatches to-day are full of interest. The Kearney nomination for mayor will take everybody by surprise.

California's new constitution has been formally adopted by Governor Irwin.

McCrary's confirmation as successor of Judge Dillon is considered doubtful.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Yellow fever on board two vessels in New York bay.

The Democrats in congress talk of adjourning next Tuesday.

The New York Times thinks the rise in silver not permanent.

The revolution on the Isthmus is pronounced a tempest in a teapot.

Lawrence Otis Hall has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

The Nevada bank sold 2000 trade dollars yesterday at par with gold.

The supplemental judicial appropriation bill has gone to the President.

The K'redive has given to New York the grand obelisk now standing at Alexandria.

In the Hazen-Stanley affair the court has acquitted Hazen and reprimanded Stanley.

An Indiana girl, debarred from seeing her lover last Saturday evening, hung herself with a clothesline.

The receiver's office in Cherson, southern Russia, was undermined and robbed of a million and a half of roubles yesterday.

McCrary's nomination is not likely to be confirmed. It is held that the President has no right to make a nomination to an office until it has been actually vacated.

Continued shocks of earthquake, which are attributed to the action of Mount Etna, have occurred near Santa Ynez and Guardia. Several houses have fallen and others are in danger of falling, and there has been some loss of life.

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishings, leg goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this state. Everything we have is new. No old, musty, and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices, and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drag into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No stereotyped seller of goods for the fun of the thing, we make a profession of everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of our specialties. Remember the place, the White House, No. 19 Commercial Row.

Order from the country promptly attended to. ABRAHAM BROS. & CO., White House, Reno.

Preparing for the Trade.

We take pleasure in informing the public that we have formed a co-partnership with E. Stenge, of San Francisco, for the purpose of carrying on a first-class Merchant Tailoring Establishment in Reno. Call and examine our stock and convince yourself.

Four calves are in the pound waiting for their owners to claim them.

O. S. Martin advertises that he wishes several houses for rent. See 50-cent column.

The box sheet for H. M. S. Pinafore at Kimball Hall next Friday night is open at the postoffice. Get your seats early.

The Wine House on Virginia street is a cozy and pleasant place to take local drinks in, and the liquors are always of the best.

There will be a meeting of Reno Chapter, No. 7, R. A. M., for work in the R. A., at 3 p. m. Friday, June 19. Forjuring companions cordially invited to attend.

Constance Avery has a mouse colored horse with an underbit in his left ear, and a black yearling colt in the pound; also a mouse colored mule branded S. H. P. on the left hip and J. C. on the right hip.

A LEAP FOR LIBERTY.

Charles Annis Escapes from Sheriff Kyle by Jumping from a Flying Train.

Charles Annis, who was sentenced from Eureka county, to seven years imprisonment in the state prison for horse stealing, made his escape from Matt Kyle, sheriff of Eureka county, last night by jumping from the west bound overland train about four miles east of Clark's station. Annis was handcuffed, but had managed to loosen the shackles in some way, and on Kyle's getting up and going to the other end of the car for a drink of water, slipped them off, ran out of the door and leaped from the flying train into the darkness. The engine slowed up almost immediately, and the train was backed up to where Annis had jumped off, but no trace of him could be found. Sheriff Kyle came on into Reno, and this morning instituted a vigorous search for the fugitive. He offers $100 reward for Annis' apprehension, who is described as being about thirty years of age, 5 feet 9 inches in height, weight, 165 pounds, has a dark complexion, heavy eyebrows, index finger gone off his right hand, and wears a habitual downcast expression on his face. He was formerly employed as brakeman on the V. & T. road. At the time Annis made his escape the train was running at a speed of 28 miles an hour.

The Busted Balloon Bill.

In spite of the transparency of the fraud, there was a large crowd to see the "Great Arabian Free Balloon Show," and of course got bilked. An old worn out balloon was inflated with hot air and kept swaying around in the air, by the aid of ropes, for some time, but no ascension took place. It was plainly intended that there should be none, as the balloon was all full of holes, and could hardly be kept inflated with a fire under it. Had an ascension been attempted it would have collapsed before it got fifty feet in the air. This fiasco only seemed to spur the curiosity of the crowd and they swarmed into the low, squat, dirty illuminated tent. The performance inside was about on a par with that on the outside. The twenty-five performers dwindled to four men and two boys; the five clowns to one poor rapid fool. The two boys possess about the only merit there is in the concern, and one of them does remarkably well for his age, but two small boys do not constitute much of a show.

Sol. Smith Russell and the Bergers, The Berger family and Sol. Smith Russell combination will appear before a Reno audience at Kimball's hall, on the evening of Monday, June 23d. This troupe is one of the best before the American public. It offers an entertainment at once unique and full of fun, and yet refined to a degree that frees it fully from all grossness and objectionable taint. Sol. Smith Russell is a born humorist, and nothing could exceed his irresistibly comic delineations; and yet his performances are as artistic as anything seen upon the stage. The musical elements presented by the troupe are all of the best class; and better this season, it is claimed than ever before.

Runaway and a Horse Killed.

Late yesterday afternoon as Robert Jones was driving a span of horses along Commercial Row, the horses took fright at the hideous din made by the Arabian Alliance band go-cart, and started to run. At the corner of Commercial Row and Centre street, Mr. Jones sprang out, and attempted to check them, but without avail. In making the turn into Centre street, one of the horses, a fine animal, worth several hundred dollars, was thrown down and killed. Mr. Jones showed great courage and coolness during the runaway, and never loosed his hold upon the lines.

Fell Down a Ladder.

In the building used temporarily as an eating house by W. R. Chamberlain there is a sort of ladder-like contrivance running up on the inside of one of the walls into a sort of garret, which the employees use for a sleeping room. Last night L. M. Jodin lost his hold in coming down, and fell, skinned his back and cutting his left hand badly.

An Unfortunate Casualty.

H. Smith, foreman of the C. P. machine shop at Wadsworth, was lifting a steam chest on engine 21 yesterday, when it slipped and fell on his left foot, cutting off his big toe and crushing the other toes of the foot badly. Dr. Bergman went down from here on a special train and dressed the wound. Mr. Smith went to Sacramento last night, to be treated in the railroad hospital.

A Movement for a Sunday Law.

A petition is being circulated praying the board of commissioners to pass a town ordinance requiring all business houses except barber shops, butcher shops, saloons, drug stores, milkmen, bakers, hotels and restaurants to close on Sundays.

Fourth of July Horrors.

A number of fun lovers are making strong efforts to get up a band of horrors to take part in the Fourth of July procession. A meeting is called for to-morrow evening at the justice court room, for the purpose of making some definite arrangements.

A Scene in Court.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 17.—This afternoon, during the trial of John J. O'Brien for the alleged seduction of Miss Lizzie Vass, and while the defendant was testifying as to his innocence of the crime, Miss Lizzie arose from her seat near her counsel and walking toward defendant, said: "You villain, you murdered my father and now you want to ruin my reputation." As she ceased speaking she drew a pistol from her dress pocket, but before she could fire it was caught by a deputy sheriff, who wrested it from her. Her father, Henry F. Vass, committed suicide on learning of his daughter's disgrace. The suit now pending is for $5000 damages, and was brought by deceased.
